PREFACE.

In presenting to the public a new edition of Dr S. W. Fallon's English-Hindustani Dictionary, we have the pleasure to say that no pains have been spared to bring out the work in a handy attractive form, the type is clear and distinct, and the illustrations are altogether a new feature.

The usefulness of the book has been still further increased by the addition of the pronunciation of English words. It is earnestly hoped that on the ground of its great cheapness, its clear, well executed illustrations, and its up-to-date pronunciation, the New Dictionary will meet with general approval.

THE PUBLISHERS.

PREFACE

Thus is a companion volume to the author's Hindustani and English Dictionary.

It contains more words than are generally found in other works, with the addition of many thousand idioms and phrases with their Hindustānī equivalents. Its chief features are:—

First.—A greater degree of fulness and accuracy than have yet been attained.

Second.—A considerable number of English phrases and idioms, with idiomatic Hindustani translations.

Third.—Technical terms in European Arts, Science, and Philosophy rendered for the first time in popular Hindustāni, in addition to the Arabic and Sanskiit terms in present use in Government Colleges and Schools.

Fourth.—The primary and secondary English meanings with their Hindustani equivalents arranged in logical order.

Fifth.—The Hindustani equivalents so arranged that the more commonly used of colloquial phrase comes before the less used or pedantic one

Sixth.—Examples, chiefly colloquial, with idiomatic translations, sometimes in verse.

Seventh.—The examples sometimes consist of English Proverbs, with idiomatic Hindustani translations and parallel Native proverbs when there are any.

Eighth. - Quotations from standard authors with their metrical renderings to exemplify and illustrate the use and meaning of words

Ninth — iffinities between Sanskrit, Hindi, Persian, and Arabic words, and their equivalents in Anglo-Saxon, English (with its dialects), and other European languages of the Aryan group.

This work was commenced by the late Dr. S. W. Fallon in 1879. He had personally corrected and revised up to the letter E, and had issued up to the word 'Beastliness." But unfortunately, on the 3rd day of October 1880, he died in England of mental exhaustron, leaving his work incomplete. The Proprietors have succeeded in completing the work by the invaluable aid of his able and efficient staff under the supervision of Rev. J. D. Bate, the author of a Hindi-English Dictionary.

The Proprietors offer their best acknowledgments to his efficient staff, Lala Faqir Chand, Head Assistant, Lala Chiranji Lal, Lala Thakur Das and Lala Jagan Nath of Delhi, and Mr. S. H. Watling, Head Master of Darbhanga School, for all aid rendered.

In conclusion the Proprietors express their gratitude to the various Governments, especially to the Government of Bengal, to whose sole liberal support the author's two great works owe their existence.

Delhi: June 1888

M. D. FALLON, Executrix to the Estate of the late Dr. S. W. FALLON.
